RECITAL VOLUNTEERING

Our recitals are not possible without the help of our parents!

Young Children's "Class Mom" Volunteer Role

The "Class Mom" is a volunteer role unique to the Young Children's performance. These volunteers are responsible for chaperoning the dancers in their class through the dress rehearsal and performance process, including:

- Being seated in a row within the audience designated for the class at both dress rehearsal & recital.
- Escorting the dancers to and from the stage before and after their performance.
- Assisting dancers in multiple dances with costume changes.

*Class Mom Volunteers do not need to purchase a ticket for themselves to attend recital as they will sit in the reserved area with the dancers.

A Sign-up Genius link for Young Children's Class Moms will be available on Weekly News in the coming weeks.

Other Volunteer Roles for Young Children's Performance (primarily ushering) and roles for other recital performances will be included on a separate, general Recital Volunteer Sign-up Genius link.
